

Boys Assistant Coach of the Year

Scott Greenspan - Glenbrook South High School

Scott Greenspan started his high school tennis career at Niles North under the tutelage of IHSTCA Hall of Fame member Pat Grant. He has also spent time with other legendary names, such as Rod Schroeder, Greg Beckway, and Jeff Jordan. Since being hired at Glenbrook South more than 20 years ago, Scott has been an integral part of the GBS program, working with Larry Faulkner and Bill Lange to form a dynamic coaching trio. He has anchored the frosh/soph program for over two decades and has also been the varsity girls head coach, where he has coached three-time state singles champion Chrissy Nolan.

Larry Faulkner and Bill Lange have worked with Scott for years. Here are some of their comments:

“For the last 21 years, Scott has helped build the foundation of our program by working with the youngest players on the team. He has worked very hard building the skills and knowledge of the younger players. He takes time to know his players. He knows their outside interests, academics, and any other capabilities they have.”

Larry Faulkner, Glenbrook South

“Scott does an incredible job preparing the players for the varsity. His ability to analyze players’ skill levels and to develop singles players and solid doubles combinations has been phenomenal. Our coaching staff works together as a team. Scott has been a huge part of that coaching team and is one of the reasons GBS tennis is so successful. He has assisted in every varsity tryout as well as with every sectional and state tournament. He brings a fresh set of eyes and perspective when watching players. His advice is always insightful. We are indeed fortunate to have such a gifted coach working with our players in the tennis program.”

Congratulations, Scott, on your 2016 IHSTCA Assistant Boys Coach of the Year award!
